

April

Frank M. Capezzeria was recently appointed to the Developers Council of the Greater Boston Real Estate Board.

Martha Everett Meng will be presenting two classes in the R.N. Supervisor Training Course sponsored by the Connecticut Assisted Living Association on April 16 and May 28.

Ms. Meng will also teach a class as part of the University of Connecticut program for Nursing Home Administration on April 16.

In addition, Ms. Meng will present a regulatory update at the annual national conference of the Assisted Living Federation of America in Philadelphia on May 5.

Elizabeth Neuwirth and H. Kennedy Hudner will be presenting "How to 'Fire' a Patient" and "The 'Top 10' Office HIPAA Rules" at the Connecticut Dermatology and Dermatologic Surgery Society Annual Education Program on May 13.

Ms. Neuwirth and Mr. Hudner also presented the program at the Connecticut Ear Nose and Throat Society Spring Meeting on April 2.

On April 2, Kari L. Olson, Kevin T. Hansted, and Martha Everett Meng presented "You Provide Great Care: But Are You Getting Paid?" A seminar co-sponsored by Murtha Cullina and the Connecticut Association of Health Care Facilities (CAHCF).

---

WHO'S DOING WHAT 2009

Loni S. Gardner, co-chair of the Young Lawyers Section Environmental Committee, organized the second of a two part CLE series held at the CBA Law Center on March 30. The program covered DEP's Programmatic and Legislative Updates and featured Gregory A. Sharp, who discussed DEP's Stormwater Permit updates.

On March 27, Mark G. DeGiacomo appeared at the Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education 12th Annual Family Law Conference and lectured as part of the keynote panel concerning bankruptcy issues in divorce cases.

On March 26, William J. Keenan, Jr. and Elizabeth Neuwirth led a program entitled "American Recovery & Reinvestment Act aka The Economic Stimulus Bill – Impact on COBRA," sponsored by the Hartford Chapter of Worldwide Employee Benefits (WEB) Network.