FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEW HAVEN, CT (May 4, 2009)... Jennifer Morgan DelMonico, a partner at Murtha Cullina LLP, was recently elected as the Secretary and General Counsel of the Greater New Haven Chamber of Commerce. Her election was ratified at the Chamber's Annual Meeting on April 23rd before approximately 550 members of the New Haven business community.

Ms. DelMonico graduated from the Chamber's Leadership Greater New Haven program in 2002 and she has served on the Chamber's Board of Directors since 2005.

"I've always benefited from my involvement with the Chamber," said Ms. DelMonico. "I'm pleased to be able to serve the Chamber in this new capacity."

About Ms. DelMonico

Jennifer DelMonico represents defendants in product liability actions and other actions for personal injury and property damage. She also represents parties in complex commercial litigation disputes, including those involving claims for business torts and violations of the Connecticut Unfair Trade Practices Act. She has experience handling sophisticated electronic discovery issues, and regularly consults with clients and speaks to organizations about managing electronic records and controlling the e-discovery process. She received a Bachelor of Music degree in Oboe Performance from Northwestern University in 1994, and graduated from the University of Virginia School of Law in 1997.
