MURTHA CULLINA LLP CONGRATULATES ITS PARTNER, FRANCIS J. BRADY, ON HIS INSTALLATION AS PRESIDENT OF THE CONNECTICUT BAR ASSOCIATION

HARTFORD, CONN. (June 11, 2009)... Murtha Cullina LLP is proud to announce that its partner, Francis J. Brady, was installed as the 2009-2010 President of the Connecticut Bar Association during the CBA Annual Meeting on June 8th at the Convention Center in Hartford. Mr. Brady will take office effective July 1.

Mr. Brady recently served as Chairman of the CBA's Pro Bono Committee. In addition, he is currently the Chairman of the Council of Bar Presidents and a member of the Executive Committees for the Federal Practice Section and for the Insurance Practice Section.

"I'm very pleased to be taking on the new responsibilities and new challenges that come with this position," said Mr. Brady. "The Connecticut Bar Association has long been a respected organization that acts to promote the public interest through the advancement of justice, and I will strive to continue in this tradition."

Mr. Brady has been an active member of the CBA and the legal community for many years. He was formerly the President of the Hartford County Bar Association, a member of the Connecticut State Bar Examining Committee and is currently a member of the Board of Directors of the Legal Aid Society of Greater Hartford. Mr. Brady also served as Mayor of the Town of Windsor, CT from 1994 to 1997.
