FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DAVID J. MCQUADE APPOINTED TO THE BOARD OF THE INSTITUTE OF LIVING

Hartford, CT (June 8, 2010)... David J. McQuade*, Senior Government Affairs Consultant for Murtha Cullina LLP's Government Affairs Group, was recently appointed to the Board of Directors of The Institute of Living in Hartford.

Founded in 1822, The Institute of Living was one of the first mental health centers in the United States. Today, it is one of America's leading not-for-profit centers for comprehensive patient care, research and education in the fields of behavioral, psychiatric and addiction disorders. It is now part of Hartford Hospital.

Mr. McQuade is the founder and senior member of Murtha Cullina's legislative and administrative lobbying team. He is responsible for the development and coordination of all activities including the design and implementation of client public policy strategies and goals. The Government Affairs Group of Murtha Cullina LLP is one of the top lobbying organizations in Connecticut. Before joining Murtha Cullina, Mr. McQuade served in the Senate Majority Office and served as Chief of Staff under the administration of Governor William A. O'Neill.

Mr. McQuade currently serves on the Hartford Hospital Advisory Board and from 1990 to 1994 he was a member of the Hospital's Board of Directors.
