

August

Burt Cohen was elected to the House of Delegates for the Connecticut Bar Association from the New Haven area.

Congratulations to Paul B. Edelberg, who has been appointed as the Liaison of the ABA Section of International Law to the CBA's Section of International Law for the term running from August 10, 2010 to August 9, 2011. Mr. Edelberg has also recently been appointed Vice-Chair to the China Committee of the ABA Section of International Law (same term).

Stephen E. Ronai will teach his course on the "Regulation of the Health Care Industry" at the Quinnipiac University School of Law, and to continue his status as an Adjunct Professor at the Law School.

On June 22, Meredith C. Burns spoke at NBI's "Collection Law from Start to Finish." Ms. Burns' topics were "Pre-Suit Collection Strategies," "Collecting the Judgment" and "Avoiding Ethical Tangles in Collections."

On June 15, Barry J. Waters spoke on "Noncompetes, Nonsolicitation and Nondisclosure Agreements" at the Connecticut Society of Certified Public Accountants (CSCPA) event held in Torrington, CT.