

Irwin J. Hausman

Of Counsel

860-240-6019 | ihausman@murthalaw.com

MURTHA
CULLINA

Education:

University of Connecticut Law School (J.D., 1968)

University of Connecticut (B.A., 1965)

Description:

Mr. Hausman has extensive experience in real estate law and arbitration. His active real estate practice has included large residential developments, office building construction and rehabilitation, development of elderly housing and assisted living projects, retail and office leasing, syndications, planning and zoning, financing, and advising distressed development. Mr. Hausman co-authored "Discovery in Arbitration" "Have It Your Way" published in Currents The Newsletter of Dispute Resolution Law and Practice. He also co-authored "Workouts for Distressed Continuing Care Retirement Communities," published by The Practical Real Estate Lawyer. He also lectured on that topic at the annual meeting of the American Bar Association. In addition, he authored "Efficient Arbitration--Discovery Issues" published by The Metropolitan Corporate Counsel.

Practices & Industries:

- Litigation
- Real Estate

Bar & Court Admissions:

- Connecticut
- U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit

Professional Associations & Memberships:

- Hartford County Bar Association Real Estate Committee, Past Chairman
- Hartford County Bar Association, Board of Directors
- Hartford County Bar Foundation, Board of Directors
- Connecticut Bar Association
- American Bar Association
- Connecticut Bar Association, Real Property Section, Executive Board
- Cooper Fellow, Connecticut Bar Foundation
- American Arbitration Association, Panel of Neutrals
- American Dispute Resolution Center, Arbitrator
- Connecticut Civil Rights Committee, Anti-Defamation League, Chair
- National ADL Civil Rights Committee, Member

Awards & Achievements:

- Service Award, Anti-Defamation League, 2002