

Diane C. Bellantoni

Counsel

860-240-6126 | dbellantoni@murthalaw.com

MURTHA
CULLINA

Education:

University of Connecticut Law School (J.D., with honors, 1995)

State University of New York at Stony Brook (M.S., 1987)

Stockton State College (B.S., with highest honors, 1982)

Description:

Ms. Bellantoni practices in the firm's Environmental Practice Group where her experience includes air, water and waste permitting, compliance issues and transactional matters. She has represented clients in permitting and enforcement matters arising from state and federal environmental regulatory programs including the Clean Air Act, Clean Water Act and the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA or Superfund). She has also assisted clients with site remediation projects and brownfields redevelopment under the Connecticut Transfer Act.

Publications

- Co-author with Mark R. Sussman: "Rising Tide: The Impact of the Supreme Court Decision on the Global Warming Debate," Conn. Lawyer, Dec. 2007/Jan. 2008
- Co-author, "The New Due Diligence: PCBs in Building Materials," Conn. Lawyer, April 2010

Practices & Industries:

- Environmental

Bar & Court Admissions:

- Massachusetts
- Connecticut
- U.S. District Court, District of Connecticut

Professional Associations & Memberships:

- American Bar Association, member of ABA Section of Natural Resources, Energy & Environmental Law
- Connecticut Bar Association, member of the Environmental Law Section
- Hartford County Bar Association
- Society of Women Environmental Professionals

Awards & Achievements:

- Connecticut Law Tribune - Women in the Law High Achievers, 2010
- 1995 recipient of the Gerald F. Stevens Memorial Award for Excellence in Environmental Law
- Managing Editor of the Connecticut Law Review, 1994-1995