

James F. Radke

Associate

617-457-4130 | jradke@murthalaw.com

MURTHA
CULLINA

Education:

Northeastern University (J.D., 2006)

Trinity College (B.S., 2002)

Description:

As an attorney in the firm's Litigation Department, Mr. Radke represents clients in the areas of commercial, employment and construction litigation. In his commercial litigation practice, Mr. Radke represents manufacturers, franchisors and commercial landlords in contractual disputes, tort and product liability matters and collection actions. He also defends employers in discrimination, sexual harassment and whistleblower lawsuits brought under state and federal laws. As a member of the firm's Construction Law Group, Mr. Radke represents construction managers, general contractors and subcontractors and has experience establishing and enforcing mechanic's liens and prosecuting and defending claims for defective work and non-payment. Mr. Radke has substantial experience managing the discovery process in large litigation matters, including the preservation, collection, review and production of electronic documents. Mr. Radke practices in state and federal courts throughout Massachusetts and Maine.

Mr. Radke has been a panelist at seminars presented by the firm on the obligations of employers under federal and state employment laws. He serves as a mentor to law students with the Boston Lawyers Group and is a member of the Associated General Contractors of Massachusetts. During law school, Mr. Radke served as a legal intern for the Honorable John C. Cratsley of the Massachusetts Superior Court.

Practices & Industries:

- Construction
- Construction Litigation & Arbitration
- Information Security and Privacy
- Litigation
- Tort and Product Liability

Bar & Court Admissions:

- U.S. District Court, District of Massachusetts
- Massachusetts
- U.S. District Court, District of Maine
- Maine
- U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit

Professional Associations & Memberships:

- Massachusetts Bar Association
- Boston Bar Association
- American Bar Association
- Associated General Contractors, Young Contractors Group

Prior Experience:

- Judicial Intern, Massachusetts Superior Court, Summer 2004