FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Murtha Cullina LLP Launches CommunityBankingInsights.com

Hartford, CT (April 8, 2016)...Murtha Cullina LLP announces the launch of its new blog CommunityBankingInsights.com.

The goal of the blog is to provide thoughtful, practical and helpful insights on a variety of legal issues related to the community banking industry.

This new legal resource features a wide variety of discussions on Creditors' Rights/Bankruptcy, Foreclosures/Collections, Loan Transactions, Security Interests, and Transactional Issues for readers to explore as well as the opportunity to get to know more about Community Banking.

Co-Chair of Murtha Cullina's Community Banking Group and Blog editor Alena C. Gfellar stated, "I'm excited to be part of the team launching the first community banking blog in Connecticut and Massachusetts. We are committed to providing quality information to our readers on a variety of topics within the community banking industry, creating a valuable and current resource for community bankers."

The editor and contributors of Community Banking Insights are attorneys in Murtha Cullina's Community Banking group. The team includes professionals who concentrate in commercial and real estate lending; workouts and restructurings; sale of bank assets and loans; creditors' rights and bankruptcy; mergers and acquisitions; product development and expansion; and general corporate and securities law. In addition, they assist banking clients in establishing, capitalizing and restructuring banks and bank holding companies to meet the changing regulations in the industry. Together, the Community Banking attorneys provide banks, thrifts and other financial institutions with a comprehensive spectrum of specialized legal services.

Visitors to www.communitybankinginsights.com can subscribe and receive email updates when new articles are posted.
