

PARTNER

PREM MALALI

Prem Malali is a Partner in Murtha Cullina's Energy Practice Group.

Prem represents developers, lenders, contractors, sponsors, financial institutions and equity investors in connection with the development, construction, financing and transfer of numerous energy and other infrastructure projects with a particular focus, in recent years, on renewable energy and sustainable infrastructure. Prem has been lead counsel to various industry participants on dozens of large and notable transactions in the energy and infrastructure space. He enjoys a reputation as a lawyer who is easy to work with, creative, and knowledgeable on market terms. He also understands the goals of the parties involved in a transaction and strives to make each transaction a win-win for all participants.

In addition, Prem has represented buyers and sellers of infrastructure projects in the context of negotiated sales and competitive auctions, and served as lead counsel to the U.S. Department of Energy Loan Guarantee Program in connection with several high profile renewable energy projects.
