FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Attorney Richard A. Marone and Murtha Cullina LLP
Recognized by Chambers High Net Worth

HARTFORD, CT (June 24, 2016)...Murtha Cullina LLP is pleased to announce Attorney Richard A. Marone has been recognized by Chambers High Net Worth for his work in private wealth law. Additionally, Murtha Cullina was recognized for its Private Wealth Law, Connecticut practice area.

The Chambers High Net Worth (HNW) guide is produced by Chambers and Partners, one of the most prestigious publishers of attorney ranking directories. The Chambers HNW guide ranks the world's leading high net worth advisors and includes many of the top accountancy and tax firms, private banks, wealth management firms and multi-family offices acting for high net worth individuals around the world.

Richard Marone is a Partner at Murtha Cullina and advises individuals, families and private businesses in the areas of wealth transfer planning, business law and taxation. He assists individuals and private businesses with sophisticated estate planning, trust and estate administration, tax planning and compliance, family business succession planning, and business transactions. Mr. Marone has been certified as a probate and trust dispute mediator by The American College of Trust and Estate Counsel ("ACTEC"). He also advises exempt organizations on taxation and governance issues.

Mr. Marone currently serves as Chair of the Trusts & Estates Department at Murtha Cullina and is the Immediate Past State Chair of the Connecticut chapter of ACTEC. He is also a Director of the Connecticut Farmland Trust, a non-profit organization dedicated to the preservation of Connecticut's working farmlands.

Mr. Marone earned his B.A. from Fairfield University, his law degree from the College of William and Mary, and his L.L.M. in taxation from Boston University.

The Trusts & Estates Department of Murtha Cullina LLP provides personal assistance to clients in lifetime planning and asset accumulation, estate and gift planning and the administration of estates and trusts. The Firm has extensive experience employing sophisticated tax planning strategies for clients, and handles their probate and trust disputes as well. The Firm emphasizes a personally tailored approach to our clients' needs and concerns, rather than pre-packaged, general solutions.
