ABOUT THE LAW

NEWLY HIRED OR PROMOTED SUPERVISORS MUST BE TRAINED

Since sexual harassment training laws have been on the books, Murtha Cullina LLP’s employment lawyers have trained more than 3,000 supervisors.

To comply with Connecticut law, businesses with 50 or more employees must provide sexual harassment training for newly hired or promoted supervisors within six months of their start date.

Connecticut law defines supervisor as any individual who has the authority, by using her or his independent judgment, in the interest of the employer, to hire, transfer, suspend, layoff, recall, promote, discharge, assign, reward or discipline other employees, or responsibility to direct them, or to adjust their grievances or recommend actions.
