TERENCE J. BRUNAU

Terence Brunau represents clients in complex litigation in state and federal courts, arbitrations, and mediations. He has experience representing clients in a broad range of complex disputes involving business torts, unfair and deceptive trade practices, contractual rights, patent infringement, and insurance coverage and recovery. Terence also represents both public and private clients in connection with a wide variety of construction matters.

Terence works with the Connecticut Veterans Legal Center representing Veterans on a pro bono basis in housing disputes. He is certified to represent Veterans in benefits cases before the United States Department of Veterans Affairs.

Prior to joining Murtha Cullina, Terence clerked for the Honorable Michael R. Sheldon of the Connecticut Appellate Court. He earned his J.D. from Quinnipiac University School of Law, summa cum laude. While in law school, Terence was a judicial intern for the Honorable Peter C. Dorsey of the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut. He also served as the Business Managing Editor on the Quinnipiac Probate Law Journal.
